HENREDON INTRODUCES THE MARK D. SIKES FURNITURE COLLECTION AND EXCITING ADDITIONS TO CELERIE KEMBLE AND RÉFÉRENCE BY PATRICK AUBRIOT

High Point, NC— October 21, 2016 - Henredon proudly announces a new partnership with Los Angeles-based interior designer, Mark D. Sikes. The collection debuted at the October 2016 International Home Furnishings Market in High Point, North Carolina, features bedroom, dining room and living room furniture.

Mark describes his style as, "Timeless yet spirited; simple, classic and All-American. My interior projects reflect the California lifestyle, updated with modern American and European influences. I am excited for my new collection with Henredon to include a bold selection of bedroom, dining room and living room furnishings reflecting two distinct customer targets – one focused squarely on the needs of interior designers today and the other unmistakably luxury retail".

One of the most iconic pieces of the collection is the Pacific Palisades Upholstered Canopy Bed, a modern iteration of a classic poster bed. Made from fine Philippine mahogany solids, kaya veneers adorn the head and footboard with side rails made with decorative prima vera veneer. The upholstered head and foot board are available in any fabric or leather. An optional slip cover is available for the head and footboard. The Barrington Sleigh Bed features a diamond-tufted headboard, upholstered rails and legs. Brass ferrules adorn the softly upholstered feet. A series of bedroom cabinets accompany the distinctive beds in the collection. The Santa Monica Tall Chest, Dresser, Nightstand and Open Nightstand are crafted in oak solids and quartered veneers with a soft Cerused Oak finish. Each sits on a plinth base that a soft white gold finish.

Luxuriously comfortable upholstery and intriguing occasional wood pieces create inspirational living room settings. The Santa Barbara Sofa and Lounge Chair are generously scaled for deep seated comfort. The San Ysidro Cocktail Table is the perfect companion and was inspired from an antique table that Mark enjoys in his own home. The Miramar Lounge Chair is a modern rush chair fitted with a seat cushion custom designed for the collection. The Warner Door Cabinet made from fine mahogany solids and quartered walnut veneer finished in Light Walnut with Ivory Accents on the beading. It features two adjustable shelves, three drawers behind pocket doors, and a flip top panel behind doors for a desk surface.

An eclectic assortment of French inspired seating complements the collection. The Presidio Settee and Chair have Neoclassic fluting around base with carved rosettes at the corners. The Wilshire Slipper Chair is an armless chair with a dressmaker skirt and loose back and seat cushions. Its elegantly flowing skirt are perfect for tape trims.

The distinctive Havenhurst Octagonal Skirted Table and Havenhurst Skirted Chest marry fine upholstery with practical wood products. The dressmaker style upholstery drape the functional storage underneath. One of the most masculine pieces in the collection is the Queens Road Chinoiserie Armoire. With antiqued hand-painted decoration, this beautiful armoire provides great function with adjustable shelves, drawers and a pull out s/urface for desk function.

New for the Henredon brand is an extensive collection of accessories designed by Mark D. Sikes. Decorative table top accessories, trays, hurricanes, a chinoiserie screen and bowls provide the perfect companions to the comprehensive furniture collection.

This fall Celerie Kemble has designed three distinctive new chairs to complement her extensive collection. The most traditional is the Fowler Lounge Chair that features English arms, a luxurious seat cushion and gently tapered legs that terminate with brass casters. A modern silhouette is the Asscher Chair that has a distinctive octagonal shape, a tight seat and sits upon tall graceful tapered legs. The Asscher Swivel Chair is a low sitting contemporary form with an octagonal profile that sits upon a tall plinth base.

New this season by the talented Patrick Aubriot for the Référence collection, are two new distinctive seating collections. The Alexandre Sofa and companion Chair feature an elegantly sloped arm, high back and tapered legs. The elegantly flared arms and gently tapered legs are the most distinguishing features of the Katie Sofa and companion Chair. These new upholstery groupings are the perfect companions to the elegantly designed collection.

"This fall we are proud to introduce the Mark D. Sikes Collection for Henredon. Mark joins Celerie Kemble and Patrick Aubriot as some of the industry's finest talents," states Reyna Moore – Vice President and Brand Director. She continues, "These distinctive collections are a reflection of the unequivocal status and recognition of the Henredon brand. They provide a more classic choice that signals refinement and prominence in the marketplace."
