HENREDON PROUDLY INTRODUCES THE JEFFREY BILHUBER COLLECTION

High Point, North Carolina – April 21, 2017 – Henredon reveals the Jeffrey Bilhuber collection this spring at the International Home Furnishings Market in High Point, North Carolina. The extensive new Jeffrey Bilhuber Collection has a dynamic assortment of upholstered furniture, wood products and decorative accessories. With a uniquely American perspective, Jeffrey Bilhuber is known for breathing new life into tradition with an innate understanding of modern sensibilities. His confidence to mix periods and design ideas have placed him in the uppermost echelon of America's design community and made him a constant fixture on Architectural Digest's prestigious AD100 list.

The launch of the Jeffrey Bilhuber by Henredon Collection in 2017 is part of a year of important growth for the Bilhuber brand with the launch of diverse product and licensing collaborations. In addition to the Henredon collaboration, in April, Elson & Company will launch a collection of flat weave dhurries and Tibetan carpets that align with the singular American perspective of Jeffrey Bilhuber.

"We are confident that the Jeffrey Bilhuber Collection will delight our network of loyal Henredon dealers around the world with the distinctive array of fine upholstery and wood products along with a signature assortment of accessories," says Regan Iglesia, Chief Merchandising Officer. "Henredon is a confident brand and Jeffrey's collection will both complement and expand the broader Henredon brand to fine retailers and to the trade."

Bilhuber's collection reflects his career-long attention to detail, his insightful American style, and his fearless individual point of view. For his part, the designer is proud of his collaboration with Henredon: "I am honored to be part of the Henredon family which has so strongly supported American design talent for the past 71 years."

Highlights of his collection include:
