BROYHILL INTRODUCES TREPORT BEDROOM COLLECTION

LAS VEGAS, NV – August 2, 2010 – Broyhill is introducing Treport, an updated Louis Philippe inspired bedroom collection, at the Vegas World Market. Treport is constructed of cherry veneers and birch solids in a warm clear cherry finish and complimented by antique-inspired brass hardware.

The sleigh bed headboard features beautiful cathedral cut wood veneers, matched to create a subtle but striking contrast pattern. Consumer testing feedback on the Treport collection inspired the final choice of hardware, leading to the selection of knob pulls in a brass finish. One consumer commented, “I like the detailing of the wood and the brass ring pulls. It looks like a collection for my family to keep and use for many years to come.”

The collection includes a sleigh bed with a shapely low profile footboard silhouette. A drawer dresser and drawer chest are offered, both featuring ample storage with a felt-lined top drawer, a cedar bottom drawer and the dresser features a jewelry tray. The drawer dresser is complimented by a matching landscape mirror with beveled detail. The nightstand features a felt-lined top drawer and convenient power touch feature where a lamp plugged into the unit is easily turned off and on with a simple light tap to the metal contact plate.
